

Memorial to Officers of War to be Erected

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—The names of more than 4500 commissioned officers who paid the supreme sacrifice in the world war will be enrolled in the national memorial club house to be erected here for living officers. Of this number New York city will be represented by the names of at least 335 commissioned men.

The club, of which Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske is president, used the casualty report of the American expeditionary force as a nucleus for compilation of the list of officer dead, but through correspondence with governors, state adjutant generals, clubs, lodges, business concerns and next of kin, the list of 5500 officer dead as officially announced in Washington in December, 1919, has been supplemented by approximately 1000 names.

Believing that other names are missing and desiring to make the club list the most complete and authentic on record, Rear Admiral Fiske has requested relatives and friends to communicate with him at headquarters of the memorial organization, 261 Madison avenue.

Civil and military records of each of the enrolled dead officers, with other data, including copies of citations, general orders, photographs and memorial books will be preserved in the archives of the new clubhouse.

The main feature of the building will be a memorial court or hall with bronze paneled walls where the names of the dead will be engraved. Records of those who won the distinguished service medal for exceptional acts of bravery will be engraved directly under their names in order that future generations may find inspiration in the valiant deeds of the past, it was announced.

While the building will stand as an enduring monument to the heroic dead, the club has determined that the memorial can best serve the interests of the nation by its usefulness as a home for officers and as a rallying center for all forms of patriotic activity. Consequently, the building will provide comfortable quarters for officers who visit New York.

Four committees sponsoring the movement to build the memorial are headed by Major General Leonard Wood, Rear Admiral William S. Sims, Henry P. Davidson, former head of the American Red Cross, and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, wife of Brigadier General Vanderbilt.

The design of the building will be selected from competitive drawings submitted by leading architects of the country. The committee on design includes Charles Dana Gibson, Edwin Howland Blashfield, Benjamin

VILLA SAID TO BE FINE FARMER

(By Associated Press)

EL PASO, Oct. 8.—Francisco Villa, the farmer, looks fine, and belies the stories circulated along the border after his surrender that he was an old and broken man, according to Norman Walker, assistant director general of the International exposition to be held here this month. Mr.

Walker said he spent part of a day with Villa at Rancho Adrian, between Parral and Rosario, during a recent trip into Mexico.

Villa, he said, insists that he is now a farmer and not a fighter, and
